

THE LAW OFFICES OF JOHN DAVID HART

People come to John David Hart at what are often the worst moments in their lives.

Many times, it's a matter of a catastrophic injury or death. He's handled cases involving car and truck accidents, medical negligence and harmful drugs. John also works on commercial litigation. In each case, he represents plaintiffs who've been harmed by others.

And the first thing people notice is that John is a very good listener. "With all the things that were going wrong, John was the one thing that I could count on to be right," says Mike Taylor, a former client. "I knew he would listen and be genuinely interested in what was happening in my world. That sort of attention is priceless."

The next thing they notice is that John has a very calming nature about him. At a time when it feels as if their whole existence is spiraling out of control, he becomes something very solid, a person they know they can rely on, a steady force.

"Over the years, I've learned something very important," John says. "If we take care of the client, everything else takes care of itself. And that's why in everything we do, and in every decision we make, we focus on the people we represent."

John's approach to cases is long-term. He understands that while tragedy happens in the moment, its effects last a lifetime. He's therefore interested not just in providing for today, but also for the future.

And at the core of his beliefs is the notion that the right to trial by jury is a cornerstone of American democracy, that a group of 12 people deciding disputes is self government at its most fundamental level.

John David Hart is board certified in both personal injury trial law and civil trial law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. He's also board certified as a civil trial advocate by the National Board of Trial Advocacy, and is Martindale-Hubbell AV rated.

And once again, he's honored to have been recognized as a Texas Super Lawyer.

"IF WE TAKE CARE OF THE CLIENT, EVERYTHING ELSE TAKES CARE OF ITSELF. AND THAT'S WHY IN EVERYTHING WE DO, AND IN EVERY DECISION WE MAKE, WE FOCUS ON THE PEOPLE WE REPRESENT."

But perhaps more important than the credentials are his attitude and his commitment to the people who call on him for help.

And his belief that everyone has the right to have their case heard, beginning with him and continuing through the courts.
